

BS EN 62305: Protection against Lightning

This standard provides the principles and requirements for the design, installation, inspection, maintenance and testing of lightning protection systems.

Key Focus Areas:

- Risk assessment for lightning strikes
- Design criteria for lightning protection systems
- Protection measures for buildings and people
- Maintenance and periodic inspection procedures

Applies to:

- Residential and commercial buildings
- Industrial facilities
- Historical monuments